

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role: Catering team member

Volunteer reports to: Karen Barnett

Why we want you

- Sharing food together is an important part of church life, helping to build fellowship, welcome visitors, and care for one another.
- Our catering team plays a key role in supporting monthly church lunches, special services, and community events, helping create a warm and hospitable environment that reflects God's love.

What you will be doing

- Helping to prepare, serve, and clear away food for monthly church lunches following the Sunday morning service.
- Supporting catering for ad-hoc events such as funerals, special services, and community outreach events.
- Working alongside the church coffee shop team when catering support is needed for events.
- Assisting with food preparation, setting up serving areas, and washing up, as appropriate to the event.
- Working as part of a team to ensure that meals and catering events run smoothly, and those attending feel welcomed and cared for.
- Following the direction of your Team Leader, working within any risks assessments as provided.
- Operating within the values of Four Oaks Baptist Church, reflecting Christ in all you do within your role.

The qualities and skills you need

- A friendly and willing attitude, with a heart for serving others.
- The ability to work as part of a team and follow instructions.
- An awareness of basic food hygiene and cleanliness (training can be provided if required).
- Reliability and a readiness to help when you are able.
- A sensible regard for health and safety.

What's in it for you

- A practical way to serve God and support the life and mission of the church.

- The opportunity to build relationships and be part of a supportive, friendly team.
- The chance to develop confidence and skills in hospitality and catering.
- Flexible involvement, with opportunities to serve regularly or occasionally depending on availability.
- The joy of helping create welcoming spaces where people can connect, share, and feel valued.
- An opportunity to serve your community, church and Christ through using your God-given skills.
- Be part of building our FOBC Vision for the future.
